PETER DENCH: LOVE UK
Opening Exhibition of the Third Floor Gallery

Peter Dench sets out to find what is love in contemporary Britain. The resulting series of not-safe-for-work photographs, Love UK, is the first show on display at the Third Floor Gallery and opens at 7pm on the 12th of February, and runs until the 7th of March. Third Floor Gallery is located in 102 Bute Street and is open Wednesdays to Sundays from 1pm to 7pm. Admission to both the event and the exhibition is free.

Peter Dench has, for a long time, studied his fellow Britons through his camera. His endeavours have been widely published and led him to a World Press Photo Award among others. In Love UK, he asks: how do the British express love? His photographic quest takes him into a variety of arenas - from ordinary homes to strip clubs, and from church weddings to small town discos. The resulting images are often harsh and not always easy to digest, but come to encompass the diversity of contemporary British loving with great honesty and humour.

Third Floor Gallery is run by photographers Joni Karanka and Maciej Dakowicz. Located in a period building a stone's throw away from Cardiff's bustling waterfront and the Millenium Centre, Third Floor Gallery shows the most exciting national and international contemporary photography.
